Description

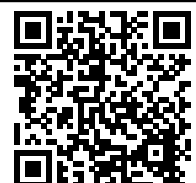

George III period eight day antique Cornish longcase (grandfather) clock of exceptional quality with mahogany case and silvered dial. An exceptional quality Cornish longcase clock in every respect. Standing 82 inches high excluding the brass finials, the mahogany case has strong flame figuring and elegant proportions with reeded, canted corners to the trunk. The hood has reeded brass capped columns, and three original finials. The silvered brass dial is finely engraved in the West Country manner, with a magnificent eagle to the arch, Roman chapter and signature "Harris Truro". The movement is of eight day duration and strikes the hours on a single bell. This authentic antique clock of exceptional quality with original finials, weights, pendulum and winding crank is fully serviced, regulated and offered with 2 years guarantee.
