Description

Octagonal Oriental Two Tier Table - Victorian - c1890 This attractive bamboo Victorian period table is a charming example presented in good condition and offering the pleasing feature of being octagonal in shape. The table has perfect proportions for use as a lamp stand, side table, hallway or simply as a feature piece in a stand-alone situation. A versatile item of furniture with a desirable original lacquer finish detailed with floral and exotic birds theme displaying good colour and condition. The table is solid in use, robust and free of wobble so often associated with this type of design. The table benefits from a small under-tier to further add to the adaptability of this piece. This presents the opportunity to display a plant or other feature. Overall this item of furniture offers great scope and is pleasing in size. Hugely fashionable and stylish.
