Description

A fine quality eight day rosewood and brass inlaid Bracket/Table Clock with decorative brass inlay to the front of the case and its canted corners. The sides of the case have brass fish scale sound fretted panels. The movement is a five pillar twin fusee with pull repeat action and anchor escapement. The Clock is also fitted with a silent-strike lever at the top of the dial and the pendulum is fitted with top adjustment above the bob. The Clock strikes the hours on a bell. The Clock has a white painted eight inch dish dial with the makers name. The movement frontplate behind the dial is also signed with the makers name:- JAMES CONDLIFF Fraser Street LIVERPOOL James Condliff set up his business in 1816 on Gerard Street in Liverpool before expanding to Circus Street, Fraser Street and later Clare Street. The Industrial Revolution had ensured that large numbers of workers were involved in watchmaking in Liverpool, Condliff's business expanded to become one of the most successful in the country, particularly renowned for skeleton clocks and regulators. It is thought that James Condliff died in 1884. The Clock mo...
