Description

Victorian Library Study Chair - Fine Shape - c1900 A lovely late Victorian leather upholstered study chair presented in excellent order c1900. With a very pleasing mahogany frame displaying serpentine front over cabriole legs, sweeping arms with relief carved scroll detail, and a most desirable H-form carved back splat. The chair offers much in the way of comfort with supportive horse-shoe wide padded back rest. The whole has been professionally traditionally re-upholstered with quality leather hide and correct brass dome cap detailing. The chair would work beautifully in any location, residential or commercial, and would make a fine feature piece or is suitable for daily use. Overall the chair displays excellently with huge style and visual appeal. With a generous seat height of 51cm (20.1") and a wide 61cm (24") seat this chair should suit all. A most desirable and collectible antique. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you require further information - we are here to help. Delivered ready for the home or office. Please see the images for the dimensions of this item. We offer a 100% satisfaction guarantee.
