Description

A antique leather upholstered deep buttoned Ottoman with mahogany turned bun feet and ornate rococo style gilt handles. This ottoman dating to the first half of the 20Th century has a beautifully deep buttoned leather upholstered lift up top with brass close nail studded edge which when open reveals a very practical storage space for magazines in the living room to bed linen in a bedroom. Sitting below the leather top is a lined leather base with gilt rococo style handles to either end and a central gilt escutcheon covering a large original steel lock. The antique leather ottoman is again edged to the bottom with close nail brass studding and raised on four polished mahogany turned bun feet. This ottoman is of great proportions with a stunning coloured leather and can be utilised in most rooms of the house whether it be in a study , lounge , hall way , or bedroom and are often used as a coffee table.
