Description

This Fine Victorian Silver Plated Table Centre Fruit Stand dates from circa 1880. It stands approximately 16.5 inches (42 cm) high. The theme is a Cherub holding a Grape Vine from which hang bunches of grapes and there is a basket full of bunches that he has picked. As can be seen from the photograph, there are two arms at the top from which real bunches of grapes can be hung. There is an engraved Armorial Crest on the base. Condition: The condition is good. There is very minor wear to the plate and a slight lean to one edge of the open weave basket. There is a residue of old polish in the crevices.
