Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

Take a look at the lovely detail in this unusual and attractive Georgian bow fronted corner cupboard from the Sheraton period. The door fronts, returns, cornice and bottom moulding all have elegant narrow black line inlay. Unusually the top cornice does not come forward but is in line with the rest of the front, characteristic of the clean lines typically favoured by Sheraton. Contrasting veneers laid horizontally make up the top and bottom features. The whole is completely original including the escutcheons. 42" high
