Description

Antique Victorian Oak Dickens Desk and dating from around 1880. Constructed from quality Oak there is a flight of five small drawers to each side joined by a turned spindle gallery and to the centre of the desk is a writing slope with original leatherette surface set within an oak frame. The slope opens to reveal an interior with arched pigeon holes and a deep storage well. To either side of the slope is a further leatherette skiver. The top has a moulded edge above three drawers and with a further three drawers to each pedestal all of the drawers are oak lined with original brass handles. It stands on a plinth base on castors and the top separates for ease of transporting. Measures: height to top of back 43" x desk height 29" x knee height 23" x 25" deep x 48" wide A superb Victorian Dickens desk of quality and with a lovely deep colour and original patination to the oak and in very good condition oozing all the charm and character of the period. Our furniture is cleaned and polished using traditional waxing methods.
