Description

Fully restored and service with a 12 month warranty. This is a beautiful example of a large 18ct gold plated Victorian French striking and repeating carriage clock dated to around 1890. It has a stunning 18ct gold plated case with a shaped fold down handle which is in mint condition having just undergone full restoration and replating. This is NOT a polished and lacquered brass case and being 18ct gold plated it will not tarnish or deteriorate, only a light dusting with a cloth is required. The movement is of an exceptional high quality and has a platform escapement, it runs for a full 8 days and keeps excellent time. It strikes on the hours and half hours on a tuned coiled gong and has a repeater button which strikes the previous hour. The movement is in excellent clean and running condition having just undergone a complete and comprehensive overhaul by Alan Williams who is a Fellow of the British Horological Institute so you can be assured that this clock will give trouble free service for many many years before requiring any further attention. A beautiful high quality and rather rare large Victorian striking and repeating carriage clock in wonderful condition wh...
