Description

Early oil on canvas portrait depicting a wealthy nobleman, seen wearing his mess red velvet jacket. The nobleman rests his right hand on a terrestrial globe whilst the other points to a map. CONDITION Old restoration having had the canvas carefully mounted and laid to board to preserve. Cleaned in the past but would benefit from further work around the facial area, but not essential. Slight faint stretcher line across middle of the portrait but not too noticable and in good order. FRAME Presently mounted inside a later wooden gilt plain frame. DATE Mid 18th Century Approx. Circa 1740 MEASUREMENTS (Including Frame) Height 56.5 Inches Width 41.5 Inches PROVENANCE Collection of a Fellow of a Cambridge College.
