Description

This is a rare example of Azeri tribal work - a bread sofreh or flatweave for kneading dough to make bread. It has been woven in two parts - due to a narrow nomadic loom - and joined up the middle. The colours are superb and the border is dramatic. A great visual piece and would look stunning hanging on a wall. Size: 1.09m x 1.25m (3' 7" x 4' 1").
