Description

Astragal Glazed Corner Display Cabinet - Georgian Oak - c1800 This astragal glazed door Georgian oak cabinet is a pleasing example and ideal for display and storage. Of good proportion it presents canted corners, reeded sides and fine style of crown and base moulding detail. The multi-pane door, with classic and desirable astragal glazed formation, opens to reveal a trio of serpentine shaped shelves and a clean painted interior. There is a lock and key, but the lock does not throw. To the exterior of the door there is an attractive pierced brass lock escutcheon. Overall a lovely English Georgian oak corner display cabinet which will suit any location. Delivered ready for the home.
