Item Reference: SA211143

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

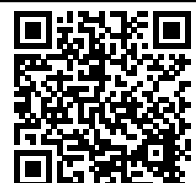

Description

This historically interesting ANTIQUE COPPER KETTLE, made by JONES Bros, 4 Down St, W., is stamped with a CORONET, a capital letter I and the name ELVEDEN. This refers to ELVEDEN HALL in NORFOLK, the home of the EARLS OF IVEAGH since 1894, when it was purchased from the MAHARAJAH DULEEP SINGH. The KETTLE stands approximately 7.5 inches (19 cm) high. It has good 'keyed' detail. There are some minor dings and signs of old repair at the base of the handles.
