

SA211770

Pair of Roman Grand Tour Oils of a Boy and Girl in Traditional Italian Costume

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA211770*Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

A Charming Pair of Roman Grand Tour Paintings of an Italian young boy and girl in traditional costume, he sat on a rock, she winnowing in a mountainous landscape, painted on canvas inscribed bottom right 'ROMA', the reverse of the canvas stamped for an art supplier '* ROMA, 69 VIA CONDOTTI', the stretcher with indistinct ink marks also inscribed Roma. These charming portraits were typical of works by jobbing local artists supplied to the wealthier tourist in the 19th Century. Condition: Darkened varnish surrounded by a lighter band which would have been underneath the original frames, he has a small pin prick hole to the left, various wear and tear commensurate with age, otherwise very good. 21.5 x 28cms.

Seller Details

Hand of Glory

Hand of Glory Antiques 34 Market Place Chippenham Wiltshire
SN15 3HP United Kingdom

Tel: 07867 305451 or 01249 447478

International Tel: +44 7867 305451 or +44 1249 447478