Description

Antique Georgian Regency Oak Secrétaire Bookcase and dating from around 1800. Constructed from quality oak it has a cornice top above a deep frieze and two astragal gloazed doors with working key and with two internal fixed oak shelves. The base has a reeded edge to the top above a deep drawer front which opens to reveal a superb interior with a small central oak door flanked on either side by a turned oak column which are in fact secret sliding drawers. There are three pigeon holes with shaped frieze above and a long drawer. It has a replacement leather tooled skiver. There are three further long graduating drawers and all of the drawers are pine lined with later handles and it stands on bracket feet joined by a shaped frieze. The top separates for ease of transporting and it measures: 87" high x height to top of base 41" x desk height 29" x 21" deep x (internal depth top 12") x 37" wide A truly superb Georgian Regency Oak Secrétaire Bookcase of good proportions and in very good condition with a lovely deep colour and patination to the oak oozing all the charm and character of the period. Our furniture is cleaned and polished using traditional waxing methods. FREE DEL...
