Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

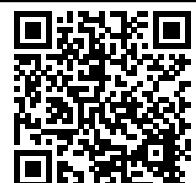

A set of six matching silver teaspoons from early in the Victorian era. These lovely and useable items are fully hallmarked and are in fiddle pattern. With so much silver flatware melted for scrap, a surviving set of six matching spoons is a good find. To the top fronts are script initials. Condition :- excellent, with no dents or splits. The bowls have a couple of minor pinpricks and the tips are very good. Hallmarks :- Clear, readable and matching. Maker :- Robert Wallis. Length :- 14 cms.
