Description

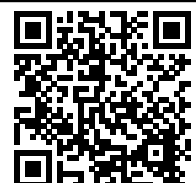

Tall Pine Corner Cabinet - Antique Victorian - c1900 This pine corner cabinet is a pleasing country example and ideal for display and storage. The piece has two storage sections with a main door over a lower 'letterbox' storage section, with shared locking toggle. Of useful proportion it presents widely canted corners and a classic simple moulding to the base and crown. The field panel door opens to reveal a three display shelf interior. Overall an unusual, usefully sized, charming pine corner display cabinet which will suit any location. Delivered ready for the home.
