Price

SoldItem Reference: SA214585*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A pair of antique brass wall lights with three tiers of lovely original glass drops. They have a bar at the back of the frame from which to hang them on the wall, they don't hang as displayed in our photographs. The lights have recently been rewired for the UK market and all the drops have had new brass pins fitted to keep them in place. The lights measure 19cm in width and 29 cm in total in length. We have left the brass as is, but it can be polished back to a brighter finish if required.
