SoldItem Reference: SA214969*Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

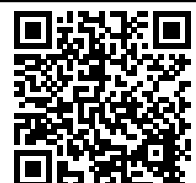

A fine quality mid/late 19th century English "Four-Glass" LIBRARY CLOCK in fine condition and in full working order. By Hughes, of Clerkenwell, LONDON, the case is of typical construction with deep bevelled glass panels to the sides and top, whilst the eight-day movement features chain-driven fusee; precision pendulum; polished steel screws and pendulum holdfast. The dial is engraved and silvered; the "trefoil" hands are original and the movement is numbered. 11ins high (28cms).
