GOOD INLAID GEORGIAN TEA CADDY

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA214975*Date of manufacture: 1750

Description

A very good quality late 18th century Sheraton period INLAID TEA CADDY of octagonal cube shape. The lid is beautifully inlaid with an oval panel of satinwood within a border of marquetry harebells and multiple lines of other woods including harewood (stained sycamore) can be found around the edges. To the crossbanded front is another oval panel of satinwood within a chequer-strung border whilst both canted corners are inlaid with "faux" Corinthian columns. The back and both sides are also inlaid with oval panels ~ of yew-wood ~ whilst the inside retains much of its original lead lining. A lovely caddy. 5ins high; 5ins wide; 4.25ins deep.

Internal Ref: 412
