Description

A really splendid and unusual Antique English letter box, beautiful quality in a campaign style with a flush cut brass handle sitting in the centre of the lid. This box would have accompanied a lady or gentleman on their travels and sat on their desk wherever they were. The hinged lid to the box is beautifully inlaid with foliate brass and two engraved plates, one for "Answered" letters and the other for "Unanswered". The top retains its original polished brass escutcheon with the lock signed by the top-notch Bramah of 124 Piccadilly (London). The box comes with its original Bramah key, requiring a push and turn as these locks are sprung. The interior retains its central divider for separating the letters deposited. A superb box in excellent condition. 7 1/2" x 6" x 5" tall. Item ID: 34782
