Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

An extremely rare set of six silver dessert spoons with bright cut decoration. These splendid examples are very rare, bearing the maker's mark of Richard Jewesson of the Sheffield Assay Office. So much flatware has been lost due the ruthless melting of antique silver for scrap, making a matching set of six Georgian spoons from a rare Assay Office, a particularly wonderful find. Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. Hallmarks :- Maker's mark, duty mark and sterling lion. Maker :- Richard Jewesson. Length :- 18 cms.
