SoldItem Reference: SA216450*Date of manufacture: 1870

Description

Dating from around 1870, this original ELM MILKING STOOL stands on four painted OAK legs. It stands approximately 10.5 inches (26.75 cm) high. The SOLID ELM top, with chamfered lower edge and good graining, measures approximately 10 inches (25.5 cm) square. The light green paint on the legs is old but not original; another colour can be seen in places. The condition is good. There are a few (about a dozen) old wormholes on the underside of the seat.
