Description

A very fine quality mid-Victorian PLAYING CARD BOX, probably by Betjemann, in wonderful 'mint' condition. The domed well-figured coromandel-wood box is bound in gilt brass, and opens to reveal the contents in pristine condition which include:

- * Ivory cribbage and marker boards
- * For packs of original playing cards
- * Set of 4 leather Bezique markers
- * Pr. of ebony & ivory "hand" markers
- * Full set of eight ivory pegs
- * Rules for Bezique (dated 1870) etc.

The condition of the gilded parts (hinges' lock' escutcheon etc) verify that this has hardly ever been used. Signed by the retailer: H. Rodrigues, 42 Piccadilly (LONDON) on a gilded tablet to the rear.
