Description

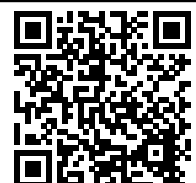

The face of this beautiful antique Salt Bag is woven in extremely fine soumack technique with ivory highlights in cotton and sides bound in goat-hair. The bag is in excellent condition for its age with good natural colours throughout. The back, as seen in one of the photos, is woven in horizontal bands of blue and red plainweave with three dark indigo-blue bands of symbols. Woven around 1870/1880 by Afshar tribes in Kerman Province, southern Persia, this is a highly collectable example of the best of Afshar work. Size: 63cm x 48cm (2' 1" x 1' 7").
