Description

After John Nost Sartorius (1759-1828) A Set of four 18thc (c1790) Hand Coloured Engravings of Hunting Scenes. Landscape by J Peltro (1760-1808), Figures Engraved by J Neagle and Published in 1795 by J Harris, Royal Exchange, London (1790/1795). Printed on Wove paper and over 225 years old, some small tears to margins and in one corner on one picture otherwise very good condition. In some very good frames. J N Sartorius was the son and pupil of the sporting painter Frances Sartorius (1734-1804). Their styles are very similar. He was an itinerant artist and his paintings are to be found in very many country houses throughout Britain. He painted many sporting scenes for clients whom he met at Newmarket races and his clients included Lord Derby and The Prince Of Wales. His paintings are as popular today as they were in his own lifetime.
