SoldItem Reference: SA218444*Date of manufacture: Victorian

Description

Antique Victorian Colonial chest of drawers in good original condition, dating from around the 1840-60 period, with original handles, corner pieces, locks & feet. The drawers have fine dovetails. There is a London made Bramah lock on the top right drawer & the rest of the locks were made in Calcutta. It looks like mahogany, although it may be teak. Like all these models, it separates into two sections, because these chests were made to be carried around in the campaigns & they are always very heavy. Beware of the many imitations in the market, which have been converted from normal Victorian chests. Width - 39", 99 cm Depth - 18", 46 cm Height - 43.5", 110 cm PLEASE TAKE A LOOK AT MY WEB SITE FOR MORE IMAGES & MORE ITEMS
