Description

Quality Triple Decanter Tantalus - Superb Condition - c1880 A gorgeous Victorian English Triple Decanter Tantalus in oak presented in stunning condition. This wonderful example has been diligently cared for and delivers top quality. A trio of cut-glass decanters are housed within the oak case. Each decanter is free of chips and complete with original neck tag and stopper. The decanters sit into original velvet lined cubbies and enjoy a mirror back for additional display glamour. The main compartment opens (at which point the decanters can be removed - they are locked in place until this section is opened) to reveal a trio of compartments. A press button release operates the sprung loaded front drawer which provides useful sections and is velvet lined in common with the decanter area. Overall a nicely proportioned and attractive example in excellent antique order which will be wonderful in any home or collection. It will make a wonderful gift for an important occasion. Delivered ready for the home.
