Description

A rare find, amazingly complete with its six molded glass custard cups all in undamaged condition with an unusual Cranberry coloured rim. Dating to the late Edwardian era, the stand sits on its four original bun shaped feet with the base having a decorative shaped edge. The caddy is carried with the aid of the intricately turned Ebony handle. The cups are highly decorative and excellent quality, very usable for a variety of things, deserts galore, fruit salads, a variety of dips and condiments, perfect for a buffet. Each cup sits in its own frame with a cut-out for the handle to sit in facing outward. The underside of the stand is marked EPNS for Electro-Plated Nickel Silver and "Made In England". Excellent condition, the stand measuring 10" x 8" x 8 3/4" tall to top of handle. Each cup has a rim diameter measuring 3" x 2 1/2" tall.
