Description

Artist: Fred Lawson (1888-1968) Title: 'The end of the village' Medium: Watercolour drawing. Size: 7" x 8" (picture size in inches) Overall framed size: 14.5" x 15" One of 96 originals from a book of drawings by Fred Lawson in 1935. They are all beautifully observed depictions of life in the Yorkshire Dales and local area in 1935, using only ink and six ink wash colours available at the time. Once it was down on paper it couldn't be altered! Due to them having been in the bound book they are as fresh and vibrant as when they were painted. Framed in a gilt frame with a washline mount and ready to hang! One from our very large collection of watercolours by Fred Lawson. Trade enquiries welcome.
