Description

Victorian Pine Dresser - Huge Character - c1900 This original Victorian pine display dresser is a pleasing design offering great practicality with a desirable open front below a pair of drawers. Offering great interest with attractive styling and warm of tone, the piece gives fine opportunity as a kitchen display or dining room cabinet. Generous drawers and a good sized lower cabinet ensure practicality. The dresser benefits from a trio of shelves to the upper section. An attractive crown moulding sits atop with pierced frieze under. The construction of the piece is robust and solid and it is presented in antique condition. The dresser has much character as displayed in the images. The dresser top detaches so it will fit into homes with small doors. Delivered cleaned, waxed and ready for the home.
