SoldItem Reference: SA220263*Date of manufacture: 1930

Description

A fabulous and excellent example of a vintage nutcracker made from what appears to be cast iron, signed on the underside by the highly collectible Nestor with an English design registration number dating the piece to 1930. A most unusual example in the form of a fish and even better having the two large original glass eyes. Excellent condition, measuring 8 1/2" in length.
