Description

This is a wonderful opportunity to own a rare triple chiming mantel clock c1900. It has the full Westminster, Whittington and extremely rare Fort Augustine Villa (FAV) chimes which resonates beautifully, the German movement is a superb piece of engineering. There is a silence option should you not wish to hear the full chimes. The oak case is lovely with moldings and lovely patina as you would expect. It is in lovely condition with the brass bezel being bright and crisp and is in full working order. It measures 8.75 inches high, 16 inches wide and is 7 inches deep.
