Description

A lovely quality English Jewellery box dating to around 18680, beautifully crafted all the way through. The box is covered in a black leather with a carrying handle to the top and a polished chromium escutcheon to the front. In front of the handle there is an embossed single initial, I believe L, very discreet if you name doesn't begin with an L. The box comes with a working Bramah key, a lock of this caliber is only found on the best examples, the lock is signed Bramah, London. The interior is an absolute joy, lined in deep blue velvet. There are two removable trays creating three layers, plenty of room. The quality again is evident with the top notch hinges. Excellent condition, there is some wear on the sides of the box (see photos); measures 9" x 6 1/4" x 4 3/4". Item ID: 34881 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
