Description

Pair of Large Victorian Cast Iron Urns, Garden Planters This is a superb pair of large urns on plinths, the urns are cast with neo classical flower patterns encircling them, unusually the stands too are patterned with stylised leaf design and they have lions mask handles. The urns and stands are in very good condition they have very weather worn and rusty paint which has protected them from the elements. These are very heavy pieces needless to say. The total height of the urns is 42", the urns are 25" tall, and 20" in diameter, the stands are 17" tall and 15" square at the base.
