Description

Victorian Oak Table - Refectory Stretcher - c1880 A very pleasing example of a Victorian oak refectory kitchen dining table with useful proportions. The piece benefits from a refectory stretcher which provides robustness ensuring that the table is solid in use, and also acts as a footrest for those seated. This quality table will work well with chairs or benches, and could equally free-stand as a display or centre piece table. Presented in very good antique condition the piece is ready to use and will look stunning in any location. The table is just perfectly sized for 4 to 8 persons and is ideal for kitchen dining purposes and daily use. The upper surface is clean with a desirable tone. Overall this table is a wonderfully sized, solid and practical item of antique furniture that is in good order throughout. Delivered ready for the home.
