Description

A stunning little box dating to the Regency period, around 1820, very nearly 200 years old now. Made from Rosewood, the box has the most beautiful foliate cut brass inlaid to both the lid and front of the box. The box stand on four brass ball feet covered in leaves. The box opens to reveal the interior of the lid having the original brass inlaid initials of the original owner, the box was probably specially commissioned by a wealthy lady or gentleman, the initials are C M F. The box has been re-lined in a hand-marbelled paper creating a clean and very usable interior. Excellent condition, measuring 7 3/8" x 5 1/4" x 4 5/8" tall.
