Description

This antique Georgian style leather & mahogany armchair is in lovely original condition, with loads of character. The leather has natural distressing, which has been enhanced with a professional polish & is in good condition throughout. The same goes for the mahogany frame. The brown leather is hand tacked & the cushion is buttoned. There is turned mahogany down the front & turned mahogany legs. This chair looks great from all angles & is structurally sound. It would work well as a desk chair or anywhere else in the home or office. I would say it dates to around the 1910-20's period. Width - 25", 64 cm Depth - 21", 54 cm Height - 31", 78 cm Seat - 17.4", 44 cm
