Description

This small antique French bombe commode is nice quality & in good original condition. It has a serpentine shaped front with an original well grained marble top, ormolu mounts & escutcheons. I think the majority of the outside wood is mahogany & Kingwood, plus there are some wonderful marquetry panels, with many exotic woods & floral inlays. These are on all the drawer fronts & on the sides too. The drawers are chamfered on the edges & they all have original locks. This commode has a lovely original warm colour & has plenty of character. I would date it to around the 1880-1900 period. Width --- 30.5" (37cm) Depth --- 16.5" (42) Height --- 33" (84)
