Description

Oak Table & Chairs Set - Six Seater - c1900 A very pleasing example of a late Victorian oak refectory kitchen/dining table suite able to seat six. The oak table, with bulbous supports, benefits from a shaped refectory stretcher which provides robustness ensuring that the table is solid in use, and also acts as a footrest for those seated. The oak chairs provide style and comfort with classic bergere seats and backs. Rising from reeded tapered legs, with quality lower stretcher, the chairs rise into a carved seat frame & moulded back before terminating in an attractive carved header rail. They are in excellent order throughout. A generous 47cm (18.5") seat height ensures pleasing seating. This quality set will work wonderfully in any dining or kitchen space. The upper surface is in lovely order with a desirable tone. The table is perfectly sized for up to six persons. Overall this oak suite is a wonderfully sized, solid and practical item of antique furniture that is in good order throughout and suitable for daily use. Delivered waxed, polished & ready for the home. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you require further information - we are here to help. 15...
