Description

Lovely Mirror Door Wardrobe - Lower Drawer - c1900 A desirable quality English late Victorian period wardrobe of useful proportions presented in very good condition. Rising from a continuous plinth with shaped front, into a full width lower drawer which displays fine marquetry tram-line detailing in common with the rest of the piece. A mirror door, complete with bevel edged plate, opens to reveal the hanging section which is complete with centre rail and perimeter hooks. The door is flanked by panels displaying a stunning marquetry emblem. Original locks and brass ware is evident throughout and the door is complete with key. The whole is capped with a fine wide crown moulding with ebonized dentil embellishment. Overall a quality example in great order providing huge style and practicality. The wardrobe separates into three sections for ease of access. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you require further information - we are here to help Height = 206cm (81.1") Depth = 57cm (22.4") At crown moulding deepest point Width = 126cm (49.6") At crown moulding widest point Please see the images for the full dimensions...
