Description

A quite fabulous and rarely found salad bowl, when we do see anything like this, they are much smaller, this is a very good size, making it a very usable set. The bowl is beautifully hand-cut with the ever-popular hobnail design and unusually having a footed base again deeply cut. The bowl comes complete with the original servers with stunning cut crystal handles. All three pieces have silver plated fittings, all having matching marks for the well renowned silversmith John Grinsell & Sons. Dating to the late Victorian era, around 1895, all pieces are in superb condition, without damage. Very heavy but not to worry, worldwide shipping is included!! The bowl measures 9 1/4" in diameter max.; the rim diameter measures 8 1/4" diameter; the bowl stands 6 1/4" tall. The servers measure 11 1/2" in length.
