SoldItem Reference: SA226101*Date of manufacture: 1930

Description

A Large Art Deco Patinated Bronze Figure of a Naked Dancing Girl. Mounted on a Brazilian Onyx Base. C.1930. Unsigned but probably by Josef Lorenzl (1892 - 1950).

An Austrian born in Vienna, Josef Lorenzl was one of the three foremost sculptors of the Art Deco period, along with Ferdinand Preiss and Demetre Chiparus. He specialised in bronze figures of highly stylised dancers with long slim limbs. He was also a gifted ceramicist, producing many pieces for the Goldscheider factory. Both his bronzes and ceramic figures have become the embodiment of the Art Deco period and are highly sought after. Height 43 cms
