Description

Set of 3 C19th Regency period 'Old Sheffield-Plate' meat covers. Large pair of covers + smaller size with meat-draining dish. All engraved with matching armorial device on inset silver panel, (large covers engraved on both sides), which appears to be a harnesses camel-head (symbolises docility, patience and perseverance in heraldry) over a Baronets bar. All-over gadrooned, ribbed and fluted decoration. Generally good original condition, some "bleeding" and minor tarnishing to the plate, and one or two minor dents. No visible makers mark. Detachable leaf-cast scroll handles. Great visual statement for display on a sideboard or serving table and use on the dining table. Pair of large covers W 20"x D 14"x H (inc. handle) 12". Smaller cover W 16" x D 11" x H 9". Dish W 20" x D 15" x H 2". England c.1820
