Description

Fully restored and service with a 12 month warranty. This is a beautiful example of an 18ct gold plated Victorian striking carriage clock dated to around 1900. It has a stunning 18ct gold plated slightly domed top case with a shaped fold down handle which is in mint condition having just undergone full restoration and replating. This is NOT a polished and lacquered brass case and being 18ct gold plated it will not tarnish or deteriorate, only a light dusting with a cloth is required. It has a gilt mask, white enamel dial and gilt minute markers, the glass is in perfect condition with no chips or cracks. The movement is of an exceptional high quality and has a platform escapement, it runs for a full 8 days and keeps excellent time. It strikes on the hours and half hours on a tuned coiled gong. The movement is in excellent clean and running condition having just undergone a complete and comprehensive overhaul by Alan Williams who is a Fellow of the British Horological Institute so you can be assured that this clock will give trouble free service for many many years before requiring any further attention. A beautiful high quality Victorian striking repeating carriage c...
