Description

Georgian Cabinet Bow Front - Stunning Veneers - c1800 A desirable & quality English Georgian bow fronted cabinet of useful proportions presented in good condition. Rising from flat bun feet, with internal brass roller castors, the main cabinet opens with a pair of bow field panel doors to reveal a clean interior - this being quartered with shelf and divider. The door closes to a catch operated by the single brass knob handle. A pair of drawers to the upper offer further storage. The cabinet displays wonderful veneer throughout and is a most striking example. The upper surface presents in good order in keeping with rest of the cabinet with further fine veneer including birds eye maple. Overall a quality example of English George III period furniture in good order providing classic style and practicality. Rare in this size, quality and condition. Ideal for any room of the home. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
