Description

A good quality and rare antique Edwardian nest of four tables with Chinoiserie decoration. This lovely nest of four tables dates to around the 1900's each with a different black lacquered and raised Chinoiserie decorative tops depicting various scenes. Each table graduate down from the larger standing on four ring turned supports ending on splayed feet united with a stretcher base. These antique nest of four tables are hard to find and being in such good condition with only a slight crazing to the top table which is expected with most original chinoiserie decoration. Fitting into both antique and traditional interiors these are a great find for any decorator and collector.
