Description

19th century silver model of a reindeer and detachable sleigh. This wonderfully crafted piece is of terrific detail and of the highest quality. The splendidly antlered reindeer is depicted pulling an ornately railed sleigh, which supports a fine "shell" with a beautifully gilded interior. Typical of the period, this is of impressive size and substance. Best we have had for some time; delightful! Germany. c.1890. Total length 23.5cm.
