Description

A fabulous and highly decorative large tray made from silverplate with a mark to the underside, the letter J with the pattern number and the letters EPNS for Electro-Plated Nickel Silver; I am uncertain who the maker is. The decorative outline has a continuous raised border or scrolls and shell motifs with two grand handles either end. The tray stands steady on four original bun feet. The tray base is beautifully finished with decorative engraving, quite exquisite. A large example measuring 23" x 17" or 28 1/2" handle to handle. Excellent condition.
