Description

This fabulous salt bag was woven by the Shahsevan tribes of Hashtrud in Azerbaijan. It is in excellent condition with wonderful natural colours throughout and a plain-weave back in horizontal bands of coloured and undyed wool. Bags like this are now scarce and I often wonder where the next one will come from! This bag was in a private collection for many years and was well looked after and treasured as the nomads themselves, treasured these prized possessions. Size: 55cm x 43cm (1' 10" x 1' 5").
